LETTER FROM NICKOLAI STROVATKO

I am happy to greet you and give brotherly greetings to all my friends from the Taylor County Baptist Association. I thank God for this possibility for communication and His blessing of our partnership ministry during many years through church education.

I pray and hope you will receive this letter before annual meetings of TCBA because I am sending a new textbook I want to add to my previous letters and pictures which you can use in information for messengers from local churches.

I ask that you share my heartfelt thanks with all the brothers who pray for Russian Baptist churches. I thank all friends who gave me books for my work. They are very nice resources which I use for my preparation for sermons, seminars, training of leaders, and other church activities. This is God's blessings I have necessary things and support for the ministry at circumstances of storm world.

I give special greetings to Billie Sue. May God continue to bless you, your family and help by His grace at any need.

With Christ's love and best wishes,

Nickolai Syrovatko,

2011 INDEPENDENCE DAY FOURTH OF JULY BOOTH REPORT

I would like to thank the folks of the Campbellsville Baptist Church and Saloma Baptist Church for their help. We distributed 350 copies of the gospel of Jesus Christ according to John and Romans as well as 150 “Find It Here” salvation brochures.

The men from Campbellsville Baptist gave out 100 copies of the DVD clips of the movie Courageous. The movie was also shown on their flat screen television. The movie will be released into theaters nationwide on September 30, 2011.

God Bless the Taylor County Baptist Association.

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S JOB CORPS

The Campbellsville Christian Women's Job Corps wishes to thank, once again, the Taylor Association of Baptists for their donation of $500 given last year. These monies helped to buy Bible study materials for our clients and assisted with other expenses incurred in our operating budget.

Our CWJC office is located in the Green River Ministries building on Clem Haskins Boulevard. Please do not hesitate to stop and view our area when the building is open. We are not physically in the office during the day every day, but the staff at GRM will be willing to guide you to our room.

In 2010-2011 the CWJC accepted 2 new clients. Both of these clients, we regret to report, have not continued in our program. However, one mentor worked with them and they had Bible study and prayer for the short time they were a part of our endeavor.

In April, Karen Vaughn completed her mentor training and was commissioned a CWJC Mentor in a ceremony at Campbellsville Baptist Church. At this point we have 4 mentors and 1 client.

January 25-27, 2012, our CWJC site will be represented in Birmingham, Alabama, at the National CWJC Conference. We are looking forward to this time of fellowship and training with other CWJC sites attending from around the United States.

Please pray with us that the Lord will lead women to us to whom we can minister and transform to His image and testimony.

Respectfully submitted,
Edwina Rowell, Site-Coordinator

BAPTIST CAMPUS MINISTRIES REPORT FOR TAYLOR COUNTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

BCM T-Shirts

We enjoyed the “Go Hard or God Home” theme from our award-winning BCM Council video so much that we carried it over to our t-shirts for the year. Discussions with some senior staff at CU ensure we would be able to use a modified version of CU’s athletic logo on the front of our shirt. We chose black, maroon, and white shirts. A part of our strategy was to identify at least one game/match of every sports team the university fields and label that particular game “BCM T-Shirt Night.” We showed up with any of our shirt color options and in every case we were supporting our team, our school, and BCM. They sold like hotcakes! We received permission to sell them at our home football games and ran out of most sizes in at least two colors. The hope was that we will have not only sold shirts but engendered good relationship with our athletes and opened the door for a spiritual conversation, too.

Oasis

Our weekly worship service was a truly refreshing experience the fall semester. One of the pleasantly surprising elements of Oasis was that we twice had two-week breaks from our regular service and yet attendance held up. While I would like to say the reason is because of our incredible speakers, I believe there is something more at work. In sports the adage is “if you want to have a great team, you have to have the athletes.” I think a similar thing was working at CU. The BCM Council worked hard, for the most part, and beyond that it certainly seemed as if the freshman class at CU was just exceptional. There was genuine interest on the part of the students. When they are motivated, it’s amazing what gets done.

“Crazy Love” Athletic Study Groups

One other thing I’d like to mention briefly, the same leaders who initiated the small group athletic team study of Crazy Love in 2009 maintained that effort last year. Even more, they had a broader coverage among the various teams at CU. We know of only one team that has not been able to get this going. There were around 200 athletes involved in some sort of small group study. Some groups used Crazy Love again. Other groups utilized other books and some are using the Bible as their guide. This tends to permeate the attitude throughout the athletic program, too.

Women’s Ministry

I had an outstanding young lady leading our women’s ministry. She was diligent about communicating with the women involved with BCM, she planned thoughtful programs, and she let our female students know someone was praying for them. Jennifer Lilly has been involved with BCM since she arrived as a freshman and has previously served on council. Last year she took on the role of women’s ministry coordinator and did a great job. There were regular and special

Bible studies, fellowship times, and women-only activities. This bolstered our outreach to young ladies on campus. In addition she planned a couple of activities for the ladies on BCM council which helped those serving to feel special.

Three Stories of Evangelism

1. The influence of personal Christian testimony continues to have an effect in our international student population. I have written in the Western Recorder about a young Japanese student named Kei Kamiya. He came to know Christ as a student at CU, and his influence, along with that of other student, helped in leading another Japanese student, Tomo Suko, to Christ in the fall of 2009. Last year another Japanese student named Tetsishi Oura came to CU. As Kei and Tomo got to know him they invited him to activities, including our fall retreat, Oasis, and FOCUS. About the third week of October Tetsushi asked Christ into his heart! The power of life-change and the encouragement to tell others about it have had the trickle-down effect of creating, essentially, three generations of Japanese converts at CU. Kei and Tomo still understand they have a long way to go in their discipleship, but that has never been an excuse to not share the gospel.
2. A story from Deborah Dean, who led a team to Arlington, Texas. This past December, I had the opportunity to lead a mission trip to Mission Arlington (MA) in Arlington, Texas, for the third year since I have been at Campbellsviile University. I absolutely love MA because of how they faithfully serve the people of the Arlington, Texas, area. Their mission is to serve God by helping those in need. Being open year round, they provide several services in their dental clinic, medical clinic, food pantry, and clothing pantry. They also provide English classes and a church service next door to MA. Currently, Bible studies and/or ministries are held in 294 apartment complexes. It is amazing to me how many different ministries that MA takes part in.

Christmas is a very special time of year at MA because they help provide thousands of families with a Christmas for their children. MA notice years ago that people were spending their rent money and their money to pay bills on Christmas presents for their children. They were being evicted from their homes or were having their electricity and heat shut off. MA began “The Christmas Store,” which allows area families with financial need to pick out one large gift, two small gifts, and a book for each child. This was my third year working in The Christmas Store. I blows my mind away every year how many volunteers come through the store received presents; that means almost 100,000 presents were donated to MA. 9,969 volunteers from all over America helped with The Christmas Store in one way or another.

The Christmas Store is not just about receiving Christmas present. Each adult that comes to the store is told the true Christmas story in both English and Spanish since Arlington is heavily populated with Hispanics. After hearing the true story and learning about God's love, they are all given an opportunity to make any spiritual decisions or ask for special prayer. This year 1,449 people made some sort of spiritual decision during this time. Which 464 were first-time decisions to trust Christ as their Savior. Seeing these numbers since I have been back in Kentucky is amazing to me because even though I know that they are telling the story and that great things are happening in that part of the building, our group never experienced firsthand the spiritual decisions being made. This is what our trip was all about, not all of the little things that we were doing, but doing the little things is what makes the big things click for people. They are able to experience God's love by seeing the way that we are serving them and learning that it is all being done because of God.

While at MA we did many things, including helping with the store, picking up food that local schools had collected, delivering bikes to children, working in childcare, and cleaning the medical clinic. These were all great opportunities for us to serve God by serving people. I think that one of our favorite things that we did was surprise children at home with a brand new bike. 2,000 new bikes were donated to MA, and we have the opportunity to deliver about 50 of them to children and see the smiles on their faces.

Matthew 25:37-40 is one of the focal passages at MA. They want to meet the needs of everyone because we are all Christ's children. I think our team really learned how important it is to serve others and that we need to depend on God for everything. God will provide for our every need and will always be there for us. Thank you for letting me share with you about MA and about our experience serving there.

An international student from southeast Asia came to CU this semester. She appeared at Oasis on February 2 and at the end of the service she moved to the front of the sanctuary and asked if she could say a word. So we allowed her to speak. She introduced herself and identified her country of origin. She also explained that her educational process had allowed her to study in several different countries around the world, including Egypt. She spoke of the burden she was feeling for the people of Egypt with the current crisis going on there. As she concluded, she asked if we would all bow our heads as she said a prayer. This would not have been so strange except that during her introduction of herself she explained that she was not a Christian, not a Muslim, not Hindu, not much of a Buddhist. Still when she prayed, she addressed her request to God. It was a very interesting moment for the American student. Thankfully, as the service ended some American students moved to the front to speak with her about her concern and to befriend her. They did not do any theology-bashing and did not confront her with anything but love. As a follow-up, she in fact did make a profession of faith in Christ.

The care, nurture, and loving witness of a number of students were involved. Now Julia is a frequent participant in BCM ministries. She stayed in Campbellsville this summer to study and had the opportunity to participate in a two week mission trip to Northern Ireland.

Students on Mission

I feel as if mission participation is a part of every report, but having 140 students involved over Christmas break was pretty special. In fact, I already know our academic year is changing in 2011-2012 and will have a great impact on our efforts next year. So the old adage “make hay while the sun shines” would have been appropriately applied to the opportunity we had last year. One of the highlights over Christmas break was a team of 40 who did mission work in Haiti from January 4-14. This team was a logistical challenge in two respects. First, just making arrangements for 40 people was tough. Second, it was a team of twenty-five from our School of Nursing and fifteen “typical” BCMers. One of my interns, Trent Creason, was the coordinator for the team. We worked with Ken Bolin, pastor of FBC in Manchester, Kentucky. Ken has had a ministry presence in Haiti for ten years. So while not an IMB missionary, he had connections and ministry locations. The involvement of our nurses meant the team would be able to conduct four health clinics. Our BCMers would do ministry alongside our nurses as well as conducting programming for children as parents were at the clinic. We saw more than 3,000 patients at those clinics with children and adults receiving some very much needed medical attention. What is even better is that during the course of our work with the adults and children for the week there were 170 who gave their lives to Jesus Christ. Our BCMers were also able to visit a local orphanage for a couple of days toward the end of the mission trip and give many children some much needed attention. The conclusion of our participating nurses was that this sort of experience should be required of every nursing student. That probably won't happen but we will work to continue to provide this kind of experience on an annual basis as long as the interest holds.

Spring break mission quotes: Becca Saylor, a freshman from Lexington said, “We were waiting in the dark, and then we saw flashlights coming from over the hills. There were people coming to the church in the dark and rain from hours away.” Saylor went to Costa Rica as a part of the final BCM partnership mission trip with missionaries Bill and Linda Egbert. Alan Haven went to Panama City Beach expecting to be stretched in his relationship with God and to allow God to use his weaknesses. “The point is to be used by Christ,” he said, “because God can use me in a trip is not much like others because you don't see results; you don't see fruit.” In one of the largest Muslim communities in the U.S., CU students met with people who “were not open to Christianity but were open to friendships.” Pierce said members of the team will continue to pray for and stay in contact with their new friends, hoping to “maybe break through to them in a few years.”

This group had their planning retreat on Easter weekend and did an incredible job. One huge answer to prayer is that our worship coordinator for this year, Jasmine Barnett, is African American. We have been praying for an increase in participation from among our black students. We had several conversations with a variety of students seeking input and ideas. When Jasmine was interviewing for the position as part of her statements was that she knew we needed to branch out with the music we used. She also stated she not only knows the music but other African American students on campus who can play and sing it. Her desire is to not move completely from one genre to another but to incorporate a variety of music genres over the next year. Now that was an answer to prayer!

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Taylor County Women's Missionary Union has fifteen churches providing mission education and involved in mission projects. Our emphasis this year is Unhindered Service. Hebrews 12:1 reminds us to "throw off everything that hinders" (NIV) or "get rid of everything that gets in the way" (GNB). These groups continue to work toward this goal through local projects and involvement throughout the world. Our prayer is we will strive to continually "run with endurance the race that lies before us."

LIGHTHOUSE COUNSELING CENTER

An old French proverb says, "Hope is the dream of a soul awake." Someone else suggested, "Hope is faith holding out its hand in the dark." Hope, however you think about it, is the commodity in which we deal as Christian ministers. As a counselor, helping persons find and trade in their fragile "small h" hopes for the reality of "large H" Hope found only in Christ is the Great Calling to which the Wonderful Counselor awakens us!

Lighthouse Counseling Center at Campbellsville Baptist Church finished its fifth year of ministry in July 2011 with a continued mission to help persons who acknowledge their need for both a light and a guide. This carefully placed "structure of guidance" exists to help persons who are interested in seeing a professional counselor who serves under the tutelage of the Wonderful Counselor who is both the Light and the Guide.

This past year (August 2010-July 2011), 431 sessions of counseling were held with individuals, couples, and families from all over Central Kentucky. This represents 36 sessions less than last year due to my sabbatical and some increased travel. Approximately 46% of these 431 sessions were held with individuals, 34% with couples, 10% with families, with the remaining 10% being supervision of other Christian marriage and family therapists pursuing licensure. In addition to serving persons from a broad variety of churches, data from the last year reveals that 7 different ministers and their families were served in a total of 36-plus counseling sessions. In fact, 8% of sessions held were with ministers or their families. Of the 431 sessions held, approximately 43% were with members or attenders of Campbellsville Baptist Church and 57% were in service to members of other churches and the community at large.

Lighthouse Counseling continues to receive referrals from a variety of individuals, churches, and organizations in our community. Presenting concerns are quite diverse, including: depression, anxiety, life management, substance abuse, marriage, family, parenting and pre-marital counseling. In addition, persons have sought help for bulimia, sexual abuse, grief and loss, infidelity, restoration to ministry, post-traumatic stress, spiritual warfare, job loss adjustment, career, school problems, spiritual concerns, and various relationship issues.

Campbellsville Baptist Church, in partnership with other churches in the Campbellsville and Central Kentucky area, began this counseling ministry a little over four years ago. Beginning the end of July 2006, Dr. Scott Wigginton assumed the position of Minister of Counseling and Director of the newly formed Lighthouse Counseling Center. He currently provides up to ten hours per week of counseling to individuals, couples, and families. To date, Lighthouse has provided close to 2000 hours of face-to-face counseling.

Counseling services are open to all persons in the community regardless of church affiliation. Referrals can be made by calling Dr. Wigginton at (270) 465-8115 (Ext. 216). Fees are $75 ($60 for individuals referred by a local church). The "Lighthouse Fund" is a way for area churches, as well as other organizations and interested individuals, to tangibly care for persons in our community who need counseling but who could not otherwise afford it. Churches and other interested parties are encouraged to make a yearly donation to the fund to defray the costs of both their members and those from the community who needs services. Checks may be sent to “Campbellsville Baptist Church Lighthouse Fund” and marked to the attention of Dr. Scott Wigginton.

The Lighthouse Counseling Ministry is possible because of generous support from Campbellsville Baptist Church, Taylor County Baptist Association, and other individuals, churches, and organizations. The Kentucky Baptist Convention partners with us in helping with pastor’s and minister’s fees for counseling. In addition, Lighthouse is grateful for a gift from CBC member Myrna Martin which will begin an endowment fund managed by the Kentucky area. If you, or someone you know would like to contribute to this fund, please have them contact Dr. Wigginton.

Dr. Scott Wigginton serves in a full-time capacity as Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries & Counseling at Campbellsville University. A licensed marriage and family therapist, he served from 1993 through 2004 as Executive Director of LifeCare Counseling Center and Counseling Minister at Walnut Street Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky. Dr. Wigginton has been married to Elizabeth for 25 years and they are the proud parents of Auburn, Hope, and Caleb. In addition to his B.A. from Western Kentucky University, he has earned M.Div., Th.M., and Ph.D. degrees from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and is a clinical member and Approved Supervisor of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy , a clinical member of the American Group Psychotherapy Association, and a Fellow with the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. Besides counseling and teaching, Dr. Wigginton has written a family column for the Western Recorder, the weekly newspaper for the Kentucky Baptist Convention, since 2001. Before coming to Campbellsville University, he taught adjunctively at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for almost 10 years and served full-time as Associate Professor and Chair of the Counseling Area at Boyce College for two years.

KENTUCKY BAPTIST CONVENTION
MISSION GROWTH TEAM OFFICE:
CHURCH PLANTING AND ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

The Mission Growth Team Office has continued implementing the changes that are being implemented due to downsizing and less budget funds. By the end of the 2010-2011 budget year the Mission Growth Team will have reduced in staff by three full time employees due to retirements. These positions will not be replaced. In addition, five part time contract/consultants have been or will be released by the end of the budget year (August 31, 2011).

Despite the loss of human resources and the anticipated reduction of approximately $250,000 from the team budget, amazing work has been performed by the entire team. These include responding to flood and tornado disasters, increasing outreach to prisons and jails, conducting partnership projects in numerous parts of the world, assisting numerous missionaries in Kentucky, challenging Baptist in Kentucky to move their prayer lives to a new level of intensity, reaching out to numerous ethnic groups, planting churches and providing resource and training to Kentucky's Director of Missions.

The MGT Office has been involved in assisting churches in planting several new churches, provided two Basic Training Journey events for potential and new church planters and teams, provided numerous church planting consultations to sponsoring churches, conducted 21 assessments of church planters. Numerous resources have been developed to assist church planters and sponsoring churches.

The MGT has conducted two new DOM Orientations, the Annual DOM Leadership Event, worked with three associations in an assessment process, trained five DOM Search Teams. Working with eight associations, the MGT Office has assisted in developing Go Metro USA partnerships in Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Two additional teams of associations are in formation to work with two additional non Southern metropolitan areas.

The MGT Office worked with KBC staff and designed the Find It Here 2011 God's Plan for Salvation process which saw about 35,000 Kentucky Baptist pray and fast for lost people and provide the lost with a special edition of the Gospel of John and Romans marked Scripture portion. Nearly 200,000 of these special Scriptures have now been distributed in Kentucky to target lost, prisons, jails, and nursing homes. Numerous individuals made professions of faith during this process.

The MGT Office has assisted Seminary Extension Centers, administered the Associational Missions Assistance Program and the Church Loan program. In addition, the Mission Growth Team Office has worked across teams to develop a biblical storying intentional relational discipling process and several coaching networks. Cooperative, special prayer emphasis and equestrian ministries have also been conducted by the MGT Office.

One of the exciting projects the MGT conducted was a week long mission trip to San Jan Puerto Rico where the Team assisted a new church plant by prayer walking numerous neighborhoods and distributed marked Scripture portions to about 1,000 homes. The Sunday after we left, the new churches' facilities overflowed with visitors and members.

Linda George and Kay Sue Leppert have provided tremendous support for all we do as a Mission Growth Team and as we do the work of the Team Office. Larry Martin continues to be a valuable field asset as the primary focuses on equestrian ministry, cowboy churches, special prayer emphasis and cooperative ministries.

KENTUCKY BAPTIST CONVENTION MULTIETHNIC MISSIONS AND MINISTRIES DEPARTMENT

Having a state team that will work with the VBS leaders of the state will increase the instances of collaboration between churches.

During the Super Saturday 2010, we trained over 300 church Hispanic church members about the importance of discipleship. During the Super Saturday 2011 we plan not only to train the Hispanic congregation on the subject of serving God as a family.

As the church planting field grows, the need for training and equipping leaders is imminent. Therefore, during 2010 we trained 15 ethnic leaders through Basic Training. In 2011, we had the opportunity to train 18 Hispanic leaders in a Basic Training instance that was offered in Spanish by Hispanic Basic Training facilitators. Being able to offer a basic training in Spanish by local Hispanic leaders shows that the state is generating equipped leaders that are preparing to equip future leaders.

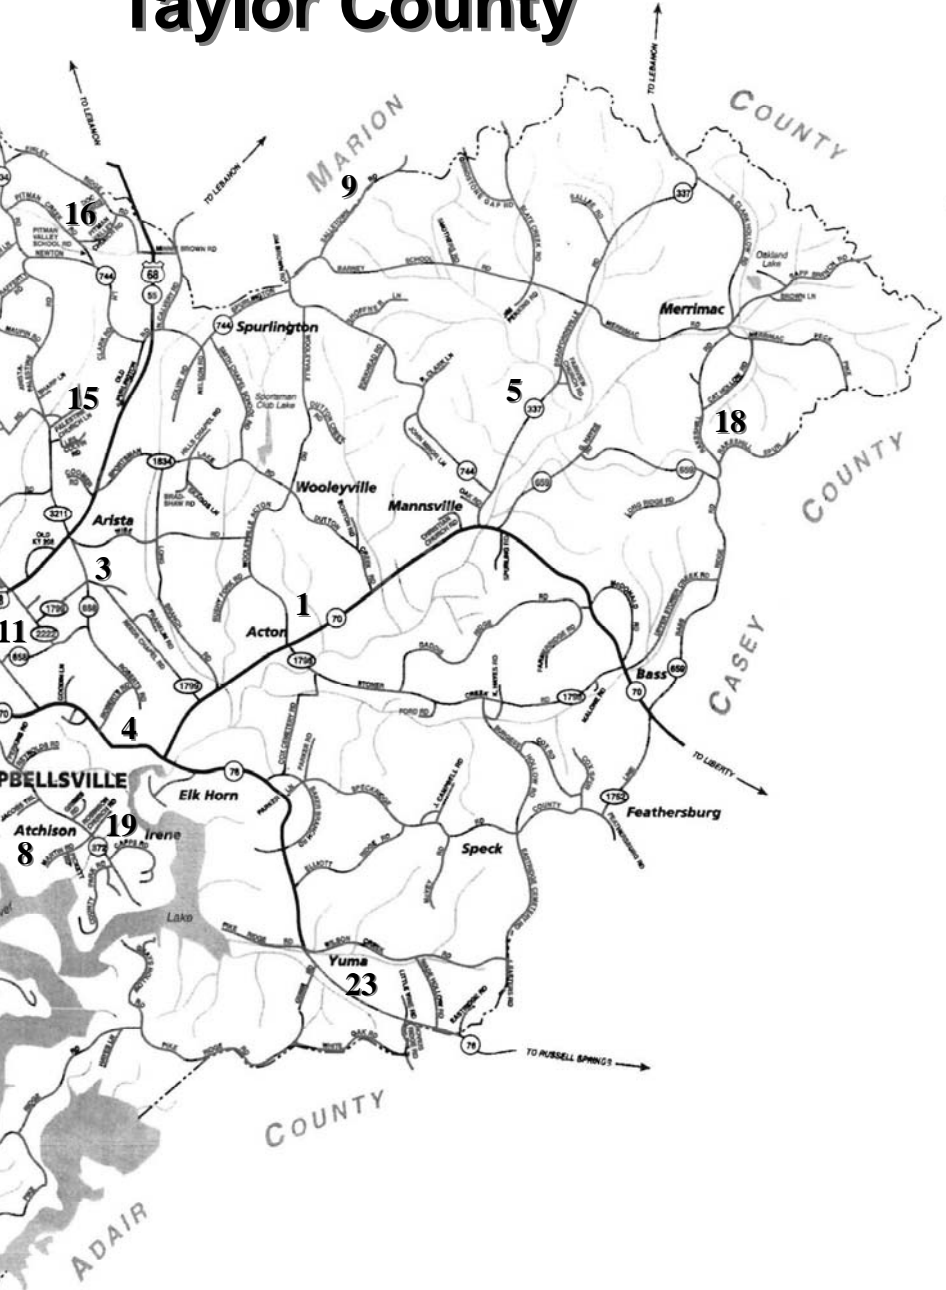

During 2010, the partnership with the Florida Baptist Convention was extended for three more years. The partnership with Florida has been instrumental in training and equipping Hispanic congregations. In 2010, we had six church-to-church projects where door-to-door evangelism took place, training on how to disciple other and conferences to guide Hispanic families about stewardship and how to be a Christian family that influences others. In addition, during 2010 we had 6 state to state projects where Florida sends leaders to offer their expertise training to local congregations in a variety of church health subjects.

During 2010, we held the first youth camp for Hispanics. This was a great instance where this age group got the opportunity to form friends bonds with other Christian fellows and where trained through a series of conferences on how to share their faith with boldness. In 2011 the Camp will take place on June 17&18 at FBC, Harrodsburg.

Taylor County

During 2010 was a year we saw new ministries' bloomed, 13 new Hispanic missions opened, two African American churches were planted as well as a prison ministry and one multiethnic mission.

During 2010 the Hispanic congregations where involved in the Find it Here efforts, this was a great time for collaboration among the local churches and the local associations where Hispanic leaders had an opportunity to meet with local leaders to plan and strategize. In 2011, Hispanic congregations are already involved in the second instance of this evangelistic effort and are excited about what God will do in the lives of the 3 people they are praying for.

During 2011, we had the opportunity to train over 200 members of the Hispanic congregations during the annual Evangelism and WMU conference. This was a great opportunity to instill in the DNA of the growing Hispanic congregations the need of doing missions, teaching about missions and promoting missions in their congregations.

In the spring of 2011, we had the opportunity to train and equip Vacation Bible School directors and leaders of the Hispanic congregations of the state. In the just held in April of 2011, we had the opportunity to train Hispanic VBS leaders and talked with some of the leaders about the possibility of forming a state steam that will participate in the national VBS training in 2012.

Missions Mobilization

Missions mobilization is under the leadership of coordinator Teresa Parrett.

There are 109 Kentucky MSC Missionaries (assigned and commissioned by the North American Mission Board) that serve as “self-funded” missionaries in the area of sharing Christ, starting churches or sending missionaries for 2 years (renewable) or longer.

There are 10 M.O.S.T. Missionaries serving in Kentucky (assigned by the North American Mission Board) with associations, churches, and local ministries for a period of 3 weeks to 2 years.

Realized 1,461 professions of faith as a direct result of their ministries.

KY MSC/MOST missionaries hosted 19,456 short-term volunteers that assisted in their ministries.

Met our KBC CONNECT goal and realized an 8.3% increase in short-term volunteers last year.

Hunger Relief

Distributed $42,757 in Hunger Funds to churches and ministries for the purchase of food.

125 professions of faith were reported as a direct result of hunger relief ministries.

To raise awareness as to the value of the World Hunger Fund, show the new 3 minute Hunger Fund video to your church and challenge them to give. Available FREE at www.kybaptist.org/hunger.

Literacy Missions

Our literacy ministry is under the direction of Rebecca Carnll, who gives leadership to Adult Reading and Writing (ARW), Tutoring Children and Youth (TCY), English as a Second Language (ESL) and English as a Foreign Language (EFL).

Kentucky has a total of 822 trained literacy volunteers.

30 new volunteers from 21 churches were trained to teach English as a Foreign Language (EFL).

Over 794 students are involved in literacy training through 37 ministries (1ARW, 13 TCY & 23 ESL) and 13 on-going Bible studies.

1 new mission start and 3 professions of faith as a direct result of literacy mission ministries.

Prayer Strategies

Developed prayer & fasting materials for “Find It Here.”

Partnered with 11 associations to plan and implement “prayer rallies.” The format varied, but generally included a time of teaching and a corporate prayer experience.

Trained 2,011 people representing 635 churches during 2010 for “Find It Here’ prayerwalking.

Network with prayer leaders in 21 associations and 626 churches. We praise God for the renewed emphasis on prayer by churches and associations.

Respectfully Submitted,

Eric Allen, Director

June 3, 2011
